

CURRICULUM VITAE

ANDREW LANGSTON FRCS (Tr & Orth)

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

Cardiff University, intercalated B.Sc. Pharm. 1st Class Hons. 1994

University of Wales College of Medicine, MBCh June 1995

M.R.C.S. The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, February 1999

F.R.C.S. Tr. & Orth. The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, February 2004

CURRENT POST – Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon - Cwm Taf Morgannwg University Health Board. Specialist interests in hip and knee replacements, hip revision surgery. Other specialist interests in arthroscopic knee surgery, bunion surgery, carpal tunnel decompression, sports injuries, general trauma.

Member of All Wales Training Committee in Orthopaedics

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE – Specialist Registrar (6 years) Trauma & Orthopaedic surgery in Morriston Hospital, Swansea; Heath/Llandough Hospitals, Cardiff; Royal Glamorgan Hospital, Llantrisant; Ysbyty Gwynedd, Bangor and Epsom General Hospital, Surrey.

SHO (2 years) Trauma & Orthopaedic surgery in Royal Gwent Hospital; Newport/Morriston Hospital, Swansea.

ORTHOPAEDIC FELLOWSHIP (August 2004-2005) Villars R. Marshall Lower Limb Arthroplasty & Arthroscopy, Flinders Medical Centre & Adelaide Repatriation Hospital, Adelaide, South Australia.

Details of training:

Focused on lower limb arthroplasty surgery of the hip and knee, cemented and uncemented primary and revision implants, general trauma.

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES include

ATLS certified. Courses in Trauma Symposium (August 2001), Knee Arthroplasty Skills (October 2002), Hip Arthroplasty Skills (October 2002), Practical Hip Arthroplasty (November 2002), Rheumatoid Surgery (November 2002), Hip Arthroplasty (February 2004) and Computer Assisted Surgery of the Knee (May 2005).

PRESENTATIONS include

Series of Total Elbow Replacements 1993 to 1999 (presented at Annual Welsh Orthopaedic Society Meeting on 21st May 1999); Compartment Syndromes Masked by P.C.A. following tibial nails (presented at Orthocelt International Society Meeting in May 2000); Comparison Between MRI Reports and Arthroscopic Assessment of the Wrist (presented at Welsh Orthopaedic Society Meeting in May 2001); Preservation Knee Prosthesis. Early Experience with Computer Assisted Unicompartamental Knee Arthroplasty System in Cardiff (presented at Welsh Orthopaedic Registrars Day in June 2004); A Protocol for the Management of Paediatric Forearm Fractures (presented at Flinders Medical Centre, November 2004); CT Assessment of Balasyns Unicondylar Knee Replacements (presented at Royal Adelaide Hospital in June 2005).

PUBLICATIONS include

1. Posterior Dislocation of Hips in Adolescents During Rugby, Journal of A&E Medicine 2000; 17:429-431
Authors: K. Mohanty, S.K. Gupta, A. Langston
2. Can a Compartment Syndrome Be Masked by a P.C.A. Following intramedullary Nailing of Tibial Fractures? Abstract: JBJS 2002. Authors: A. Langston, H. Richards, R. Kulkarni, E.M. Downes.
3. Does Patient Controlled Analgesia Delay the Diagnosis of Compartment Syndrome Following Intramedullary Nailing Of The Tibia? Journal of Injury (2004) 35, 296-298, Authors: H. Richards, A. Langston, R. Kulkarni, E.M. Downes.

TEACHING

Regularly involved in teaching medical students from Swansea and Cardiff Universities.
Clinical supervisor for Specialist Registrars in T&O.

MEDICO LEGAL

Providing medico legal reports since 2006
Approximately 700 reports per annum
Medco Registered

CONTACT DETAILS:

Mr. Andrew Langston
Cardiff Sports Orthopaedics
Spire Cardiff Hospital
Croescadarn Road
Pentwyn,
Cardiff CF23 8XL

Email: medicolegal@csortho.co.uk

Telephone: 08445 617152

SPECIALIST AREAS

- Upper limb injuries and surgery including to the wrist, forearm, elbow and shoulder.
- Lower limb injuries and surgery including to the pelvis, hip, femur, knee and tibia.
- Foot and ankle injuries and surgery
- Road traffic accident injuries e.g. whiplash

MEDICO LEGAL CLINIC VENUES

The Cathedral Clinic
242 Cathedral Road
Cardiff CF11 9JG

The Grove Medical Centre
6 Uplands Terrace
Uplands
Swansea SA2 0GU