

Forensic Accountancy Services

Established in 1976, over the past five decades Alexander & Co has earned its reputation as one of the most trusted and dependable firms of accountants in the region.

We believe in building long term relationships and through our personal partner-led approach and close contact, we gain an intimate knowledge and understanding of clients and their needs.

Our Approach

Our expert forensic team combines accounting and investigative assistance with legal skills, so that accounting information is ready and suitable for court and authoritative quantification of damages.

This is a highly complex and specialist accountancy skill and our forensic accountants analyse, interpret and condense information so that full and supported facts are provided in a cost-efficient, timely manner. This ensures that our clients have a full and proper understanding of all facts to fully assist in their case.

We regularly act as expert witness and have been appointed by plaintiffs, claimants and as court appointed single joint experts. We also have specialist expertise in tax issues and regularly acts as Expert Witness in a wide range of specialist tax matters.

With extensive experience in the forensic field, work includes expert witness and litigation. We regularly undertake fraud and financial investigations across many business sectors, providing the following services:

- ◆ Courses of action after reviewing financial evidence
- ◆ Obtaining relevant documentation and evidence to help uphold or reject a claim
- ◆ Examining the evidence of the opposing party and finding any strengths or weaknesses within it
- ◆ Negotiations and settlements
- ◆ Court hearings, giving evidence in court and meeting with relevant parties
